

Evan Low for Congress Campaign Internship

Description:

Do you want to take an active role in helping determine who will represent you in Congress? Learn more about California Assemblymember Evan Low (www.evanlowforcongress.com), who is running to represent California's 16th Congressional District. Evan is a champion for women's reproductive freedom, the environment, marriage equality, LGBTQ+ rights, affordable housing, public safety, and tech/innovation. He is endorsed by the CA Democratic Party, the Labor Federation, nurses, firefighters, teachers and police chiefs.

We'd love to have you join us as an intern on Team Low. This is your chance to truly make a difference and shape what our government will look like for decades to come.

The internship will allow you to learn the ins and outs of a congressional campaign. You'll have a chance to connect with voters through canvassing (door knocking), literature drops and one-on-one conversations with voters. This is an excellent opportunity to practice and improve your communication skills.

In addition, interns are offered trainings by core staffers on transferable skills within politics and policy including: policy analysis, canvassing organizing, tabling etc.

Requirements and Eligibility:

- High school, college students, or recent graduates
- Availability to work at least 5-10 hours a week in person (in office and field)
- Previous campaign experience is preferred, but not necessary!
- Rolling applications and start date. Internship end date on Election Day (Nov 5th, 2024).

Roles and Responsibilities:

- All interns are required to attend our weekly zoom meeting and attend at least 1 weekly canvassing (door knocking)
- There are also opportunities to learn about and take part in
 - a. Recruitment of volunteers/interns
 - b. Identifying community events + fundraising opportunities
 - c. Policy research
 - d. Social media

How to Apply:

Complete the application here. The application is rolling. A member of the team will reach out shortly. Please note that this is an unpaid internship.
